

ALLIANCE WORK TEAMS

Fall 2011/Spring 2012

Alliance work teams serve around the world, combining faith and works; showing the love of Jesus not only through their prayer and spiritual impact but also through hard work and productive effort.

INTERNATIONAL WORK PROJECTS

- October 8-21, 2011: Mexico City, Mexico – Team of six to eight men to erect steel on second floor of Atizapan Short Term Ministry Centre.
- February 4-18, 2012: Mexico City, Mexico – Team of 10-12 to install “Q” decking on second floor of Atizapan Short Term Ministry Centre and pour concrete.
- February 25- March 10, 2012: Panama City, Panama – Team of 10-12 to construct cupboards and build partition walls for the community centre at the Cerro Viento Chinese Alliance Church.
- March 17-31, 2012: Rio Chico, Mexico – Team of 10-12 to continue construction at the Base Camp, building a second mezzanine floor in the storehouse and also visiting the boarding school for the Tarahumara Indians at Guacaivo.

Costs for short-term mission trips are approximately $2,500 to $2,800 per person.

Check for other international work project opportunities as they become available.
